

Cheerfully Mediterranean

GISBERT PÖPPLER

A deep red-colored cabinet stands out in this otherwise pastel-hued, cheerfully toned bathroom. Its white tiles and blue walls below a yellow ceiling remind Gisbert Pöppler's clients—a family of three—of the freshness of the Mediterranean seaside. The space contrasts modern and more traditional elements: a white freestanding bathtub raised up on feet looks surprisingly contemporary, while the surrounding elements are more conventional. The fully glazed shower enclosure is an easy-to-clean addition. <

BATHING IN PLAID

The eye-catching tiling in this small Berlin bathroom by Gisbert Pöppler was created from large 60 x 60 centimeter white gloss tiles normally reserved for fancy parking garages. Mixed with smaller glass mosaic tiles in black, they create a monochrome border running around the walls of the bathroom to perfect grid-like effect.

KÜNSTLERISCH WERTVOLL

Gisbert Pöpler verwandelte diese 1920er-Jahre-Altbauwohnung im Berliner Bezirk Charlottenburg in ein modernes Familienapartment. Kunstwerke, luxuriöse Samtvorhänge, antike Spiegel, gusseiserne Badewannen und mit Lavastein überzogene Waschbecken bilden einen spielerischen Kontrast zu den schlichten weißen Wänden.

