SIDEBOARD CORRESPONDENCE

Inspired by classic Asian woodwork, this sleek table uses no nails or screws, it is simply held together with compression from a keystone and artistic joinery. The striking lines and refined structure of this narrow table make it suitable for an entrance hall, supporting a freestanding couch, or in any tight space that needs some elegance. Crafted out of solid Ash and hand lacquered in a coral red, Correspondence stands on subtle wedge like legs that taper into rounded details where wooden pegs hold everything together.
