THE GLASS HOUSE RUG

If a rug can be poetry, then the Glass House rug is a Haiku of effortless composure with stunning tones. Inspired by Philip Johnson's minimalist masterpiece, Gisbert Pöppler has continued a tradition by producing this hand tufted carpet with Edward Fields, the manufacturer of original carpets in The Glass House. This Area rug blends design, quality and craftsmanship and is, as Edward Fields would have said, art for the floor. The Glass House Rug has a diameter of 140cm to 240cm.
